

Iridia

role-playing games and miniatures, old and new by Christian Walker

On Point

Welcome to Iridia 50! Last issue I mentioned that I had been thinking of making changes to Iridia. Now that we've arrived at the fiftieth issue, I think it's time to share with you what's been on my mind. While I have enjoyed publishing Iridia in a single-sheet format, it has its limitations. Doing mailings and web updates each week has become too time consuming. Also, there's never enough space to explore more in-depth ideas. Therefore, Iridia will be switching to a digest format. Iridia 51 will be published November 1. Iridia will primarily be distributed in print, although print-ready .pdfs will be available online. See you in November!

Until next time,
Christian
